Ref: 2026/171 Incoming

Date: 31/07/2026

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

MINISTRY OF CABINET AFFAIRS

(Barcode: 1603/2026/ص) Date: 24/07/2026

To: His Excellency Dr. Abdulrahman bin Abdulmanan Al Awar

Acting Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research

Greetings,

Subject: Implementation of Cabinet Resolution No. (143) of 2026

Please find attached for Your Excellency's kind attention a copy of Cabinet Resolution No. (143) of 2026 Concerning the Regulation of Violations, Penalties and Administrative Measures Related to the Mandates and Services of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research, following its issuance by His Highness the Prime Minister.

Kindly direct the relevant parties to take the necessary measures to implement the aforementioned Cabinet Resolution.

Respectfully yours,

Mohammad Abdullah Al Gergawi

Minister of Cabinet Affairs

Copy to be submitted before:

- Ministry of Finance.
- Education, Human Development and Community Development Council

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES
THE CABINET

Cabinet Resolution No. (143) of 2026
Concerning the Regulation of Violations, Penalties and Administrative Measures Related to the Mandates and Services of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research

The Cabinet,

- Having reviewed the Constitution;
- And Federal Law No. (1) of 1972 Concerning the Mandates of Ministries and Powers of Ministers, and its amendments;
- And Federal Law No. (14) of 2016 Concerning Administrative Violations and Penalties in the Federal Government;
- And Federal Decree-Law No. (26) of 2019 Concerning Public Finance, and its amendments;
- And Federal Decree-Law No. (31) of 2025 Concerning Higher Education and Scientific Research;
- And Cabinet Resolution No. (103) of 2026 Concerning the Fees and Financial Guarantees Related to the Services Provided by the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research;
- And Cabinet Resolution No. (104) of 2026 Concerning the National Framework for the Licensure of Higher Education Institutions;
- And upon the presentation of the Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research, the approval of the Education, Human Development and Community Development Council, and the approval of the Cabinet,

Has resolved as follows:

Article (1)
Definitions

The definitions set forth in Federal Decree-Law No. (31) of 2025 Concerning Higher Education and Scientific Research shall apply to this Resolution. Otherwise, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings assigned to each of them respectively, unless the context requires otherwise:

Law: Federal Decree-Law No. (31) of 2025 Concerning Higher Education and Scientific Research.

Fictitious Practical Training: The formal registration of a student in a practical training program with a training entity without actual implementation of the training content or compliance with the intended outcomes, whether in terms of actual attendance or acquisition of skills and knowledge related to the specialization, the suitability of the training entity for the practical training requirements, or due to shortcomings in the duties of supervising the practical training process and its quality, with the intent of circumventing the regulations and controls governing practical training programs, or solely for the purpose of formally satisfying the requirements of an academic program/graduation requirements.

Institutional Breach of Academic Integrity and Integrity of Examination Systems: A breach by a higher education institution or a technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be, of its obligations to establish, implement, or monitor the policies, procedures, and systems necessary to ensure academic integrity and the integrity of examination procedures and results, including preventing, detecting, and addressing any act that constitutes a breach of research ethics, the integrity of research procedures and the publication of research outcomes, or that constitutes cheating or a breach of the examination system in accordance with the definitions set forth in Federal Decree-Law No. (33) of 2023 Concerning the Prevention of Cheating and Breaches of the Examination System, where such breach occurs as a result of serious or repeated shortcomings in monitoring, supervision, examination security, or electronic examination systems, or as a result of facilitation, overlooking such conduct, or failure to take the necessary measures.

Deviation Affecting the Quality of Higher Education: Any actual change or deviation from the approved plan for a qualification or program, or from the admission standards, that has or is likely to have an adverse effect on the quality of the teaching and learning processes, on ensuring that students obtain recognition of the qualification they are pursuing, on equal opportunities, or on students' opportunities to complete the program requirements within the prescribed timeframe and plan.

Review and Evaluation: The processes of verifying compliance with the standards, conditions, and requirements set forth in the resolutions issued in implementation of the provisions of the Law, for the purposes of granting and renewing Institutional Licensure, granting and renewing Institutional Accreditation, granting and renewing Programmatic Accreditation, or for the purposes of classification, quality of performance, and oversight, as the case may be.

Effective Control: The ability, directly or indirectly, individually or jointly with others, to control the management of an institution, its decisions, policies, or activities, or the appointment of those responsible for its management, whether through ownership, agreements, arrangements, or any other means.

Article (2)
Scope of Application

1. The provisions of this Resolution shall apply to higher education institutions, technical and vocational education and training institutions, and training centres and institutes subject to the Law, where they violate the provisions of the Law and the resolutions issued in implementation thereof.
2. The provisions of this Resolution shall be without prejudice to the authority of the competent local education entities to impose penalties and administrative measures in accordance with the legislation in force therewith.
3. The Ministry shall coordinate with the competent local education entities and notify them of any violations or procedures relating to higher education institutions holding a local permit, and technical and vocational education and training institutions and training centres and institutes holding a training licence or local approval. The competent local education entity shall also inform the Ministry of any procedures, penalties, or measures it has taken in respect thereof concerning violations in accordance with the provisions of the Law, in a manner that ensures no duplication of the procedures, penalties, or administrative measures applied to institutions subject to the provisions of this Resolution.

Article (3)
Penalties and Administrative Measures

Without prejudice to any criminal penalty or other measure prescribed under the legislation in force, the Ministry shall impose penalties and administrative measures for violations committed in contravention of the provisions of the Law and the resolutions issued in implementation thereof, in accordance with the tables attached to this Resolution, as follows:

1. Table No. (1): Violations, Penalties and Administrative Measures Applicable to Higher Education Institutions and Technical and Vocational Education and Training Institutions.
2. Table No. (2): Violations, Penalties and Administrative Measures Applicable to Training Centres and Institutes.

Article (4)
Exemption from Administrative Measures and Penalties

The Minister may grant exemption from the administrative measures and non-financial penalties set forth in the tables attached to this Resolution, in accordance with the controls determined by the Minister in this regard.

Article (5)
Cases Where Administrative Fines Shall Not Be Imposed

The administrative fines set forth in the tables attached to this Resolution shall not be imposed if the Ministry determines, based on the documents and controls approved by it, that any of the following cases applies:

1. Where the violation is attributable to a delay by the relevant federal or local government entities in issuing the approvals or decisions concerning the licences, permits, or approvals necessary for the operation of the institution, without any negligence or deliberate act being attributable to the institution.
2. Where a higher education institution, technical and vocational education and training institution, training centre, or training institute, on its own initiative, self-reports the deficiency or violation before it is detected by the Ministry or the competent regulatory entities, provided that it is established that the violation did not result from gross negligence or a deliberate act.
3. Where the violation arises from force majeure, a natural disaster, an officially declared epidemic, or a general government decision that prevented compliance, provided that it is established that there was no negligence or deliberate act on the part of the higher education institution, technical and vocational education and training institution, training centre, or training institute.
4. The non-imposition of a fine in the cases referred to above shall be without prejudice to the Ministry's right to take any administrative measure necessary to protect students, trainees, or customers, or to ensure compliance, in accordance with the provisions of this Resolution and the legislation and resolutions in force.

Article (6)
Grievances

1. Any higher education institution, technical and vocational education and training institution, training centre, or training institute may submit to the Ministry a reasoned written grievance within sixty (60) days from the date of becoming aware of the decision, procedure, penalty, or measure being contested. The grievance shall be accompanied by all supporting documents.
2. The Ministry shall decide on the grievance within sixty (60) days from the date of its submission, in accordance with the procedures applicable therewith, and shall notify the grievant of the decision issued thereon.
3. The submission of a grievance shall not result in the suspension of the implementation of the contested decision, unless the Ministry decides otherwise.

Article (7)
Amendment of Penalties and Administrative Measures

The Cabinet shall have the authority, upon the presentation of the Minister and following the approval of the Education, Human Development and Community Development Council, to make any amendments to the measures and penalties set forth in the tables attached to this Resolution, whether by addition, deletion, or modification.

Article (8)
Final Provisions

1. The application of the administrative measures and penalties stipulated in this Resolution shall be without prejudice to any penalties, liabilities, or other procedures prescribed under the legislation in force, nor shall it preclude the competent local education entities from taking any other procedures or imposing any other penalties, in accordance with the legislation in force therewith.
2. The administrative fines stipulated in this Resolution shall be collected through the means determined by the Ministry of Finance, while the competent local education entities shall collect the financial fines relating to institutions licensed by them, in accordance with the legislation and regulations in force therewith.
3. Subject to the provisions of Clause (4) of this Article, failure to remedy the causes of a violation, continuation of the violation after a warning, or failure to implement the administrative measure or penalty within the prescribed period shall be deemed a repetition of the violation for the purposes of applying the administrative measures and penalties stipulated in this Resolution.
4. For the purposes of determining repetition, a previous administrative penalty shall not be taken into account if one year has elapsed from the date of its issuance without the same violation being committed. The commission of the same violation after such period shall be deemed a first-time violation, without prejudice to the validity of the previous administrative penalty or the legal effects arising therefrom. This shall not apply to violations or penalties stipulated in this Resolution as final, the effects of which may only be revoked by a decision issued by the Minister.

Article (9)
Executive Decisions

The Minister shall issue the necessary decisions to implement the provisions of this Resolution.

Article (10)
Publication and Effective Date

This Resolution shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall come into effect on September 12, 2026.

/Stamped/
Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum
Prime Minister

Issued by Us:
On: 9 Safar 1448 AH
Corresponding to: August 24, 2026 AD

Table No. (1)

Concerning Violations, Penalties and Administrative Measures Applicable to Higher Education Institutions and Technical and Vocational Education and Training Institutions
Attached to Cabinet Resolution No. (143) of 2026 Concerning the Regulation of Violations, Penalties and Administrative Measures Related to the Mandates and Services of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research

No.	Description of Violation	Mechanism for Imposing Administrative Measures / Penalties	Prescribed Administrative Measures / Penalties for the Violation (all shall apply cumulatively)	Administrative Fine (AED)
1	1. Establishing or operating a higher education institution, or engaging in higher education activities, without obtaining Institutional Licensure from the Ministry. 2. Establishing or operating a technical and vocational education and training institution, or engaging in technical and vocational education and training activities, without obtaining Institutional Accreditation from the Ministry.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Immediate closure of the entity or premises where the unlicensed or unaccredited activity is conducted, as the case may be, and coordination with the competent local entities, economic departments, and relevant entities to take the necessary measures to prevent the resumption of the violating activity during the prohibition period. 2. Requiring the violating institution to refund any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	100,000
		Upon continuing to engage in the unlicensed or unaccredited activity after closure, or repetition of the violation after expiry of the previously imposed prohibition period.	1. Immediate closure of the entity or premises where the unlicensed or unaccredited activity is conducted, as the case may be, and coordination with the competent local entities, economic departments, and relevant entities to take the necessary measures to prevent the continuation or resumption of the violating activity in any manner. 2. Requiring the violating institution to refund any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Permanently prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over,	500,000 or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution.

2	Submitting forged documents or misleading data or information to obtain Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Rejection of the application for Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Not accepting any other application submitted by the same applicant, its representative, or any person or entity that the Ministry establishes is acting on its behalf or for its benefit or is subject to its Effective Control, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. If it is established that Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation was granted on the basis of forged documents or misleading data or information, the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, and any Programmatic Accreditation issued or continued on the basis thereof, shall be revoked, and the following measures shall be taken in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry: a) Suspending the admission or registration of students and the offering of programs at the violating institution, as of the date of revocation of the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation. b) Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. c) Closing the institution or the premises where the activity subject to the revoked Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation is conducted, in coordination with the competent entities. 4. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	100,000

		Upon continuing to engage in the unlicensed or unaccredited activity after closure, or repetition of the violation after expiry of the previously imposed prohibition period.	1. Rejection of the application for Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Permanently not accepting any other application submitted by the same applicant, its representative, or any entity having an actual association therewith. 3. If it is established that Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation was granted on the basis of forged documents or misleading data or information, the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, and any Programmatic Accreditation issued or continued on the basis thereof, shall be revoked, and the following measures shall be taken in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry: a) Suspending the admission or registration of students and the offering of programs at the violating institution, as of the date of revocation of the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be. b) Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. c) Closing the institution or the premises where the activity subject to the revoked Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation is conducted, in coordination with the competent entities. 4. Permanently prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution.	500,000
3	Submitting forged documents or misleading data or information for the renewal of Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Rejection of the application for renewal of Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be. 2. If it is established that the renewal of Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation was granted on the basis of forged documents or misleading data or information, the Institutional Licensure or	100,000

			Institutional Accreditation, and any Programmatic Accreditation issued or continued on the basis thereof, shall be revoked. 3. Suspending the admission or registration of students and the offering of programs at the violating institution, as of the date of revocation of the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be. 4. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 5. Closing the institution or the premises where the activity subject to the revoked Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation is conducted, and coordinating with the competent local entities, economic departments, and relevant entities to take the necessary measures to prevent the continuation of the violating activity. 6. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.
		Upon continuing to engage in the unlicensed or unaccredited activity after closure, or repetition of the violation after expiry of the previously imposed prohibition period.	1. Rejection of the application for renewal of Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be. 2. If it is established that the renewal of Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation was granted on the basis of forged documents or misleading data or information, the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, and any Programmatic Accreditation issued or continued on the basis thereof, shall be revoked. 3. Suspending the admission or registration of students and the offering of programs at the violating institution, as of the date of revocation of the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be.	500,000

			4. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 5. Closing the institution or the premises where the activity is conducted, as the case may be, as of the date of expiry of the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation or rejection of the renewal of either thereof, and coordinating with the competent local entities, economic departments, and relevant entities to take the necessary measures to prevent the continuation of the violating activity. 6. Permanently prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution.
4	1. Offering an academic program, admitting students thereto, or allowing students to study therein without obtaining Programmatic Accreditation. 2. A technical and vocational education and training institution offering a technical or vocational program or qualification without obtaining Programmatic Accreditation.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the violating institution to immediately cease offering the program or qualification and admitting students thereto until Programmatic Accreditation is obtained within the period determined by the Ministry. 3. If the violating institution is unable to obtain Programmatic Accreditation within the period determined by the Ministry (in accordance with the preceding item), the institution shall be required to refund any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement and to submit an academic continuity and student protection plan for students enrolled in the program, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	100,000 for each qualification or program
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time and thereafter.	1. Requiring the violating institution to immediately cease offering the program or qualification and admitting students thereto. 2. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and	150,000 for each qualification or program financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Rejecting any applications for new programs or qualifications submitted by the violating institution, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 5. Upon repetition of the violation for the third time, the Ministry may take the following measures: a) Revoke the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be, after taking the necessary measures to protect students' rights and regularize their status. b) Require the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. c) Permanently prohibit the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution.

5	Submitting forged documents or false or misleading data or information to obtain Programmatic Accreditation.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Rejecting the application for Programmatic Accreditation, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Not accepting any other application for Programmatic Accreditation submitted by the same violating institution, its representative, or any entity effectively associated with it, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	100,000

			3. If it is established that Programmatic Accreditation was granted on the basis of forged documents or false or misleading data or information, the Programmatic Accreditation of the program subject of the violation shall be revoked, and the following measures shall be taken in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry: a) Ceasing to offer the program or qualification and ceasing the admission or registration of students therein, with effect from the date of revocation of the Programmatic Accreditation. b) Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. c) Suspending the admission of new students to all programs of the violating institution for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Rejecting the application for Programmatic Accreditation for the program subject of the violation. 2. Permanently refusing to accept any other application for Programmatic Accreditation submitted by the same violating institution, its representative, or any entity effectively associated with it. 3. If it is established that Programmatic Accreditation was granted on the basis of forged documents or false or misleading data or information, the Programmatic Accreditation of the program subject of the violation shall be revoked, and the following measures shall be taken in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry: a) Ceasing to offer the program or qualification and ceasing the admission or registration of students therein, with effect from the date of	500,000 revocation of the Programmatic Accreditation. b) Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Revoking the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be. 5. Permanently prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution.

6	Submitting forged documents or false or misleading data or information for the renewal of Programmatic Accreditation.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Rejecting the application for renewal of the Programmatic Accreditation of the program or qualification subject of the violation. 2. Ceasing to offer the program or qualification and ceasing the admission or registration of students therein, with effect from the expiry date of the Programmatic Accreditation or from the date determined by the Ministry, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Not accepting any application for accreditation of a new program or qualification submitted by the same violating institution, its representative, or any entity effectively associated with it, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 5. Suspending the admission of new students to all programs of the violating institution for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 6. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it,	100,000 from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.

		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Rejecting the application for renewal of the Programmatic Accreditation of the program or qualification subject of the violation. 2. Ceasing to offer the program or qualification and ceasing the admission or registration of students therein, with effect from the expiry date of the Programmatic Accreditation or from the date determined by the Ministry, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Revoking the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be. 5. Permanently prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution.	500,000
7	Providing the Ministry with incorrect data, information, records, or documents, including student records or documents relating to performance evaluation, oversight, monitoring, or verification of compliance.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the institution to rectify the violation and provide the correct data, information, records, or documents and the supporting documents thereof within the period determined by the Ministry. 3. Suspending consideration of any applications or procedures submitted by the violating institution to the Ministry, where the data or records subject of the violation are required for deciding thereon, until the violation is rectified and the accuracy of the data is verified. 4. If the violation is material or affects the integrity of the program, qualification,	100,000 service, or students' rights, the Ministry may suspend the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, or suspend the accreditation of the program, qualification, or educational service associated with the violation, including suspending the admission or registration of new students, for the period determined by the Ministry, while continuing to provide educational services to enrolled students. 5. Reclassifying the violating institution as "Unclassified" and raising its risk level to "High Risk"if the violation relates to data or documents affecting classification or performance evaluation. 6. Requiring the violating institution to appoint, at its own expense, an independent auditor or review body to verify the accuracy of the data, records, or documents whenever the Ministry deems this necessary.

		Upon repetition of the violation.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Suspending the services or procedures provided by the Ministry to the violating institution until the violation is rectified and the correct data, information, records, or documents are provided, provided that this does not prejudice the rights of students or customers. 3. Suspending the admission or registration of new students at the violating institution or in the programs or qualifications associated with the violation, for the period determined by the Ministry. 4. The Ministry may suspend the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, or suspend the accreditation of the program, qualification, or educational service associated with the violation, including suspending the admission or registration of new students, for the period determined by the Ministry, while continuing to provide educational services to enrolled students. 5. Requiring the violating institution to appoint, at its own expense, an independent auditor or review body to verify the accuracy of the data, information, records, or documents whenever the Ministry deems this necessary. 6. If the violation is serious, has been repeated more than twice, has resulted in material misrepresentation to the Ministry, was a reason for the renewal of the Institutional Licensure, Institutional Accreditation, or	500,000

			Programmatic Accreditation, or has prejudiced students' rights or the integrity of the educational process, the Ministry may take the following measures: a) Revoking the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be, while requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. b) Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.
8	Refusing, without justification acceptable to the Ministry, to provide the data, information, records, or documents requested by the Ministry for the purposes of oversight, performance evaluation, classification, monitoring, or verification of compliance; delaying their submission beyond the period determined by the Ministry; or failing to enable the Ministry to access or verify them or to carry out oversight and inspection activities in accordance with the approved mechanisms.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the violating institution to provide the required data, information, records, or documents within the period determined by the Ministry. 3. The Ministry may suspend consideration of any applications or procedures submitted by the violating institution to the Ministry until the required data or documents are provided, where they are necessary for deciding on the application or procedure, provided that this does not prejudice the rights of students or customers. 4. The Ministry may suspend the admission of new students in accordance with the controls and for the period determined by it, where the refusal or delay affects the Ministry's ability to verify compliance or the integrity of the academic or institutional status. 5. The Ministry may reclassify the violating institution as "Unclassified" or raise its risk level to "High Risk" if the violation relates to data or documents affecting classification or performance evaluation.	100,000
		Upon repetition of the violation.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be, while	500,000

			requiring it to provide the required data, information, records, or documents within the period determined by the Ministry. 2. The Ministry may suspend consideration of any applications or procedures submitted by the violating institution to the Ministry until the required data or documents are provided, where they are necessary for deciding on the application or procedure, provided that this does not prejudice the rights of students or customers. 3. The Ministry may suspend the admission of new students in accordance with the controls and for the period determined by it, where the refusal or delay affects the Ministry's ability to verify compliance or the integrity of the academic or institutional status. 4. The Ministry may reclassify the violating institution as "Unclassified" or raise its risk level to "High Risk" if the violation relates to data or documents affecting classification or performance evaluation. 5. If the refusal persists or recurs in a manner that affects the Ministry's ability to exercise oversight or verify compliance, the Ministry may suspend the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 6. If the violation is serious, has been repeated more than twice, has resulted in material misrepresentation to the Ministry, was a reason for the renewal of the Institutional Licensure, Institutional Accreditation, or Programmatic Accreditation, or has prejudiced students' rights or the integrity of the educational process, the Ministry may take the following measures: a) Revoking the Institutional Licensure or Institutional Accreditation, as the case may be, while requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. b) Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.

9	Failure to comply with advertising and publication controls, or the use of misleading titles or information relating to higher education institutions or technical and vocational education and training institutions, their programs, qualifications, academic or honorary degrees, or their licensing or accreditation status; or publishing any advertisement or media material that may mislead students or customers regarding the legal or accreditation status of the institution, program, or qualification; or promoting educational services or academic or honorary certificates that are unlicensed or unaccredited, in accordance with the Law, the national frameworks, and the decisions issued in implementation thereof.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the violating institution to eliminate the causes of the violation, including publishing a correction or clarification explaining the violation through the same medium or platform through which the violating content was published, and on the institution's website and official accounts, and removing or correcting the violating content, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	20,000 for each advertisement
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time and subsequent repetitions.	1. Issuing a warning. 2. Requiring the violating institution to publish a correction to the advertisement or media material. 3. Rejecting any applications for the accreditation of new academic programs or professional programs and qualifications until the necessary corrective measures have been taken. The Ministry may suspend the admission of new students to the violating institution or to any of its programs or qualifications, wholly or partially, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. If the advertisement contains misleading information for customers regarding the institution or its programs, or adversely affects the reputation of higher education in the State, the Ministry may take the following measures:	100,000

			a) Revoking the Institutional Licensure, Institutional Accreditation, or Programmatic Accreditation, as the case may be. b) Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. c) Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.
10	Organizing or holding higher education exhibitions or events, or inviting or hosting higher education institutions from outside the State to participate therein or promote their programs or qualifications within the State, without obtaining the approval of the Ministry or the competent local authority, in accordance with the controls approved by the Ministry or the competent local authority.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Suspending the exhibition or event, or suspending the participation of the violating institutions, until the causes of the violation are eliminated, in coordination with the competent local authorities. 2. Removing all violating advertising materials and promotional content. 3. Requiring the organizer to publish a correction or clarification through the media or platforms through which the advertisement or promotion was made, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. The Ministry may prohibit the organizer from organizing or holding educational exhibitions or events for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by it, where the organization of the event resulted in inviting or hosting higher education institutions that are unlicensed or unrecognized in the State, or promoting their programs or qualifications.	100,000
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time and subsequent repetitions.	1. Suspending the exhibition or event, or suspending the participation of the violating institutions, until the causes of the violation are eliminated, in coordination with the competent local authorities. 2. Removing all violating advertising materials and promotional content. 3. Requiring the organizer to publish a correction or clarification through the media or platforms through which the advertisement or promotion was made, in	200,000 accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. The Ministry may prohibit the organizer from organizing or holding educational exhibitions or events for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by it, if the violation is repeated more than twice, or where the organization of the event resulted in inviting or hosting higher education institutions that are unlicensed or unrecognized in the State, or promoting their programs or qualifications.

11	1. A higher education institution holding an Institutional License commits a deviation that materially affects the quality of higher education, or implements any material changes without obtaining the Ministry's prior approval, in accordance with the National Framework for Licensing Higher Education Institutions. 2. A technical and vocational education and training institution holding Institutional Accreditation commits a deviation that materially affects the quality of higher education, or implements any material changes without obtaining the Ministry's prior approval, in accordance with the National Framework for Technical and Vocational Education and Training.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Suspending the admission of new students to the program or qualification subject of the violation until the necessary corrective measures are taken. 3. Requiring the violating institution to immediately take the necessary corrective measures to protect continuing students and ensure continuity of the academic process. 4. Requiring the violating institution not to charge students enrolled in the program or qualification subject of the violation any additional fees or costs for taking the corrective measures.	50,000 for each qualification or program
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Revoking the Programmatic Accreditation of the program or qualification subject of the violation. 2. Requiring the violating institution to immediately take the necessary corrective measures to protect continuing students and ensure continuity of the academic process, including bearing the cost of transferring students enrolled in the program subject of	100,000 for each qualification or program the violation to accredited programs or qualifications at the same institution or another institution. 3. Requiring the violating institution not to charge students enrolled in the program or qualification any additional fees or costs for taking the corrective measures. 4. Rejecting any applications for new programs or qualifications submitted by the violating institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.

		Upon repetition of the violation for the third time and subsequent repetitions.	1. Revoking the Institutional License, Institutional Accreditation, or Programmatic Accreditation, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	150,000 for each qualification or program
12	Institutional breach of academic integrity and the integrity of examination systems in a manner that affects the quality of learning outcomes or the integrity of assessment results.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Suspending the admission of new students to the violating institution until the necessary corrective measures are taken. 3. Rejecting any applications for new programs or qualifications submitted by the violating institution until the necessary corrective measures are taken. 4. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	300,000 for each case

		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time and subsequent repetitions.	1. Revoking the Institutional License, Institutional Accreditation, or Programmatic Accreditation, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	800,000 for each case
13	Failure to meet environmental, health, and safety standards affecting the safety and health of students and employees.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the violating institution to meet environmental, health, and safety standards within a period determined by the Ministry. 3. In cases posing a serious risk, requiring the violating institution to close the affected areas or the entire institution, as the case may be, and compensate students for any interruption to their studies resulting from such closure.	30,000
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Requiring the violating institution to meet environmental, health, and safety standards within a period determined by the Ministry. 2. In cases posing a serious risk, requiring the violating institution to close the affected areas or the entire institution, as the case may be, and compensate students for any interruption to their studies resulting from such closure. 3. Suspending the admission of new students to the violating institution until the necessary corrective measures are taken. 4. Rejecting any applications for new programs or qualifications submitted by the violating institution until the necessary corrective measures are taken.	50,000
		Upon repetition of the violation for the third time and	1. Revoking the Institutional License, Institutional Accreditation, or Programmatic Accreditation, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of	100,000

		subsequent repetitions.	the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Permanently prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution.
14	Publishing content that violates the laws, principles, and culture of the United Arab Emirates, in accordance with the legislation regulating such matters in the State.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the violating institution to remedy the causes of the violation by removing or correcting the violating content, and publishing a correction or notice explaining the violation through the same medium or platform on which it was published, as well as on the institution's official website and official accounts, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	30,000 for each case
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Requiring the violating institution to remedy the causes of the violation by removing or correcting the violating content, and publishing a correction or notice explaining the violation through the same medium or platform on which it was published, as well as on the institution's official website and official accounts, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Suspending the admission of new students to the violating institution until the necessary corrective measures are taken. 3. Rejecting any applications for new programs or qualifications submitted by the violating institution until the necessary corrective measures are taken. 4. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	30,000 for each case

		Upon repetition of the violation for the third time and subsequent repetitions.	1. Requiring the violating institution to remedy the causes of the violation by removing or correcting the violating content, and publishing a correction or notice explaining the violation through the same medium or platform on which it was published, as well as on the institution's official website and official accounts, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Revoking the Institutional License, Institutional Accreditation, or Programmatic Accreditation, as the case may be. 3. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Permanently prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution.	30,000 for each case
15	Fictitious practical training.	For individual cases.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, as the case may be. 2. Requiring the violating institution to refund any fees or amounts collected from students in consideration for the fictitious practical training. 3. Requiring the violating institution to bear the cost of repeating the practical training for the affected students, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	10,000 for each case, up to a maximum of 100,000 where there are multiple cases
		In the case of repeated and systematic fictitious practical training.	1. Requiring the violating institution to refund any fees or amounts collected from students in consideration for the fictitious practical training. 2. Requiring the violating institution to bear the cost of repeating the practical training for the affected students, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Suspending the admission of new students to the violating institution until the necessary corrective measures are taken. 4. Rejecting any applications for new programs or qualifications submitted by the	10,000 for each case, up to a maximum of 100,000 where there are multiple cases violating institution until the necessary corrective measures are taken. 5. Prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.

		Upon repetition of the violation relating to repeated and systematic fictitious practical training.	1. Requiring the violating institution to refund any fees or amounts collected from students in consideration for the fictitious practical training. 2. Requiring the violating institution to bear the cost of repeating the practical training for the affected students, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Revoking the Institutional License, Institutional Accreditation, or Programmatic Accreditation, as the case may be. 4. Requiring the violating institution to take the necessary measures to ensure continuity of the academic process, protect students, and preserve their academic records and financial rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from students without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 5. Permanently prohibiting the violating institution, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any higher education institution or technical and vocational education and training institution.	10,000 for each case, up to a maximum of 100,000 where there are multiple cases

Table No. (2)

Concerning Violations, Penalties and Administrative Measures Applicable to Training Centers and Institutes Attached to Cabinet Resolution No. (143) of 2026 Concerning the Schedule of Violations, Penalties and Administrative Measures Related to the Mandates and Services of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research

No.	Description of Violation	Mechanism for Imposing Administrative Measures / Penalties	Prescribed Administrative Measures / Penalties for the Violation (all shall apply cumulatively)	Administrative Fine (AED)
1	Failure to comply with the requirements for advertisements and media materials approved by the Ministry concerning training centers or institutes, their programs or qualifications, or the status of their licensing or accreditation.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to remedy the causes of the violation, including publishing a correction or notice explaining the violation through the same medium or platform through which the violating content was published, and on its website and official accounts, and removing or correcting the violating content, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	10,000 for each advertisement
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time and subsequent repetitions.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to remedy the causes of the violation, including publishing a correction or notice explaining the violation through the same medium or platform through which the violating content was published, and on its website and official accounts, and removing or correcting the violating content, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Suspending the provision of any new services by the violating training center or institute until the necessary corrective measures are taken.	10,000 for each advertisement
		Where the advertisement contains misleading information for customers concerning the training center or institute or its programs, or is likely to adversely affect the reputation of	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to remedy the causes of the violation, including publishing a correction or notice explaining the violation through the same medium or platform through which the violating content was published, and on its website and official accounts, and removing or correcting the violating content, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Revoking the Training License of the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the	100,000 for each case higher education in the State.	necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State.

2	Establishing or operating a training center or institute, carrying out a training activity, or providing training programs that do not lead to the award of qualifications placed at levels of the National Qualifications Framework, without obtaining a Training License.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to immediately cease the unlicensed activity until the Training License is obtained. 3. Requiring the violating training center or institute to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	100,000 for each case
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to immediately cease the activity until the Training License is obtained. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Suspending the services of the violating training center or institute, in whole or in part, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing,	100,000 for each case directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.

		Upon repetition of the violation for the third time.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to immediately cease the training activities. 2. Revoking the Training License of the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State.	100,000 for each case
3	Assigning the delivery of training material to a trainer who is not specialized in the relevant field.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to immediately cease delivering the training material. 3. Requiring the violating training center or institute to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	100,000 for each case
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second and third times.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to immediately cease delivering the training material. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Suspending the services of the violating training center or institute, in whole or in part, for the period and in accordance	100,000 for each case with the controls determined by the Ministry.

		Upon repetition of the violation for the fourth time.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to immediately cease providing training activities. 2. Revoking the Training License of the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State.	100,000 for each case
4	Failure to meet environmental, health and safety standards affecting the safety and health of customers and employees.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to meet the environmental, health and safety standards within a period determined by the Ministry. 3. In cases posing a serious risk, requiring the violating training center or institute to close the affected areas or the entire institution, as the case may be, and compensate trainees for any interruption to training resulting from such closure.	5,000
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to meet the environmental, health and safety standards within a period determined by the Ministry. 2. In cases posing a serious risk, requiring the violating training center or institute to close the affected areas or the entire institution, as the case may be, and compensate trainees for any interruption to training resulting from such closure. 3. Suspending the provision of any new services by the violating training center or institute. 4. Prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or	10,000 institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.

		Upon repetition of the violation for the third time.	1. Revoking the Training License of the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training institute or center within the State.	15,000
5	Failure to provide the data or documents requested by the Ministry, and failure to cooperate with the Ministry in completing review and evaluation processes in a manner that affects the evaluation of the training center or institute.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to provide the required data or documents or cooperate with the Ministry to complete the review and evaluation processes, as the case may be, within the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	10,000
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to provide the required data or documents or cooperate with the Ministry to complete the review and evaluation processes, as the case may be, within the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Suspending the services of the violating training center or institute, in whole or in part, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person	20,000

			exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.
		Upon repetition of the violation for the third time.	1. Revoking the Training License of the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State.	30,000
6	Publishing or promoting content relating to educational or training programs or services or certificates, in violation of the provisions of the Law, the decisions issued in implementation thereof, or the controls approved by the Ministry, or in a manner that may mislead customers or harm the reputation of the higher education sector or the technical and vocational education and training sector in the State.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to remove the violating content and publish a notice or clarification in the form determined by the Ministry, through the same medium or platform through which the violating content was published, or through any other medium or platform determined by the Ministry, and for the period determined by the Ministry.	30,000
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to remove the violating content and publish a notice or clarification in the form approved by the Ministry, through the same medium or platform through which the violating content was published, or through any other medium or platform determined	30,000 by the Ministry, and for the period determined by the Ministry. 3. Suspending the services of the violating training center or institute, in whole or in part, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.

		Upon repetition of the violation for the third time.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to remove the violating content and publish a notice or clarification in the form approved by the Ministry, through the same medium or platform through which the violating content was published, or through any other medium or platform determined by the Ministry, and for the period determined by the Ministry. 2. Revoking the Training License of the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State.	30,000
7	Continuing to carry out the training activity after the expiry of the Training License without renewing it in accordance with the	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to cease providing	2,000 for each month procedures and controls approved by the Ministry.		any training programs or services until the Training License is renewed. 3. Requiring the violating training center or institute to take the necessary measures to protect customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from them without legal entitlement. 4. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status, until the Training License is renewed.

		Upon repetition of the violation for the second time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to cease providing any training programs or services until the Training License is renewed. 3. Requiring the violating training center or institute to take the necessary measures to protect customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from them without legal entitlement. 4. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status, until the Training License is renewed. 5. Prohibiting the acceptance of new trainees for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	2,000 for each month
		Upon repetition of the violation for the third time.	1. Revoking the Training License of the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers	2,000 for each month without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status. 3. Prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Controlover, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.

8	Using the premises for a purpose other than that for which it is licensed.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. .Requiring the violating training center or institute to immediately cease providing training activities. 3. Revoking the Training Licenseof the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status.	5,000 for each case

		Upon repetition of the violation for the second and third times.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to immediately cease providing training activities. 2. Revoking the Training Licenseof the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status.	5,000 for each case
		Upon repetition of the violation for the fourth time.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to immediately cease providing training activities. 2. Revoking the Training Licenseof the violating training institute or center, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry.	5,000 for each case

			3. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training institute or center within the State. 4. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status.
9	Failure to comply with the decisions and instructions issued by the Ministry.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute. 2. Requiring the violating training center or institute to comply with the decisions and instructions issued by the Ministry within a period determined by the Ministry.	10,000 for each case
		Upon repetition of the violation for the second and third times.	1. Requiring the violating training center or institute to comply with the decisions and instructions issued by the Ministry within a period determined by the Ministry. 2. Suspending the provision of any new services by the violating training center or institute until the necessary corrective measures are taken. 3. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status.	10,000 for each case
		Upon repetition of the violation for the fourth time.	1. Revoking the Training License of the violating training center or institute, while requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the	10,000 for each case competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State. 3. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status.

10	Submitting forged documents or incorrect data or information to obtain or renew a Training License, or for the purposes of supervision, performance evaluation, or monitoring trainees' affairs.	Upon commission of the violation for the first time.	1. Rejecting the application for issuance or renewal of the Training License of the violating training institute or center. 2. If the violating training center or institute is already operating, revoking the Training License and closing the violating training center or institute in coordination with the competent authorities. 3. Requiring the violating training center or institute to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State, for the period and in	100,000 for each case accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 5. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status.

		Upon repetition of the violation.	1. Rejecting the application for issuance or renewal of the Training License of the violating training center or institute. 2. If the violating training center or institute is already operating, revoking the Training License and closing the violating training center or institute in coordination with the competent authorities. 3. Requiring the violating training center or institute to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 4. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State. 5. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status.	100,000 for each case and the soundness of assessment procedures or examinations in training programs, in a manner that affects the quality of training outcomes or the integrity of assessment results.	the violation for the first time.	2. Suspending the services of the violating training center or institute, wholly or partially, for the period and in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 3. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State.
11	Failure to comply with the integrity requirements	Upon commission of	1. Issuing a warning to the violating training center or institute.	10,000 for each case

		Upon repetition of the violation.	1. Revoking the Training License of the violating training center or institute and requiring the violator to take the necessary measures to ensure the protection of customers' rights, including refunding any fees or amounts collected from customers without legal entitlement, and delivering trainees' records and documents to the Ministry or the competent authority, in accordance with the controls determined by the Ministry. 2. Permanently prohibiting the violating training center or institute, the individuals or institutions owning it, and any person exercising Effective Control over it, from establishing, owning, exercising Effective Control over, or managing, directly or indirectly, any other training center or institute within the State. 3. Requiring the violating training center or institute to clearly disclose, through its website and official platforms, the status of its Training License, and to remove or amend any content indicating the continuation of licensing or accreditation or the acceptance of new trainees contrary to its regulatory status.	10,000 for each case